

FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS - "CRAZY COURAGE AND CREATIVITY" WENDY MANN

1. Esther courageously approaches the King, in spite of the dangers of doing so. Share your stories of courage where you have had to step through fear to bring the kingdom.
2. What did you learn about yourself and God through these experiences?
3. You have been strategically placed by God in your workplace to bring the kingdom. How does this mindset change the way you view your work?
4. Wendy shared her story when as a teacher she had opportunity to share Jesus with her students. What are the barriers or challenges to you living out your faith in your workplace?
5. When was the last time you obeyed the prompting of the Holy Spirit to do something risky? what stops you obeying these promptings?
6. Esther put on her royal robes. We need to remember who we are to live courageously. Why does identity directly link with faith? How can you grow in revelation of your identity?
7. Esther received encouragement from Mordechai just prior to seeing the king. Encouragement is the act of putting courage in others. What encouragements have most impacted you personally? Spend some time encouraging one another
8. Creativity plays a key part in bringing the kingdom. Pray for creative ideas on how Jesus wants to bring the kingdom through you.
